

7th Workshop on Kantian Perspectives on Social Irrationality

	09/04/25	10/04/25	11/04/25
9:00h – 13:00h	Prof. Dr. Jean-Christophe Merle (Vechta): “Punishment as ‘the rightful effect of what is [morally] culpable’ in Kant’s Doctrine of Right” Dra. Tania Eden (Bochum): “The professional voice of reason in politics: Kant’s ‘Secret Article for Perpetual Peace’” Profa. Dra. Cristina F. Consani (UFPR): “Epistemic injustice and rationality: Kant’s philosophy in the horizon of decolonial critiques”	Tailine Hijaz (Vechta/UFPR): “How could Kant’s distinction between opinion, belief, and knowledge address epistemic challenges in the digital age?” Indalécio Rocha (Vechta/UFPR): “External imposition of social values in Rawls’s theory of justice” Bruna Lourenço (Vechta/UFPR): “The redistribution-recognition dilemma: Fraser’s analysis of claims of justice”	Egyle Nascimento (Vechta/UFPR): “Democracy and its relationship with Kantian republicanism” Gabriel Souza (UFPR): “Autonomy and Domination: the limits of social power in Habermas’ Between Facts and Norms”
Lunch
15:00 – 18:00	Prof. Dr. Joel Klein (UFPR): “Conflict of duties and the case of revolution in Kant’s practical philosophy” Frank Rettweiler: (Vechta): “Perpetual Peace, Republicanism, and Early Romanticism”	Probral Coordinators Meeting	Karine Barboza (Vechta/UFPR): “Fake news: a Kantian approach through the concept of intentionality and rationalization” Eduardo Quirino (Vechta): “Epistemic problems with fair blaming”